

Our Vision

We envision a community where every child at Brookside grows into a curious, capable, and confident learner - connected to nature, rooted in resilience, and prepared for life's adventures.

We see the outdoors not just as a space for play, but as a vital classroom for physical, emotional, and social development.

Our goal is to inspire children to care for themselves, for others, and for the natural world.